MBA Programme 2022-23: Counseling-cum-Admissions

Important Notice

This is regarding the counseling-cum-admissions for the MBA programme scheduled to be held at NIT Calicut on 27th May 2022. Candidates having difficulties to attend the counseling-cum-admissions process either due to (i) their already scheduled final semester degree examinations or (ii) due to serious medical problems can depute an authorized person as proxy to attend the counseling process provided the below mentioned guidelines are followed:

1. Such authorized person shall produce a letter of authorization signed by the candidate
2. They must produce evidence to show that the candidate has to appear for final semester degree examinations on the day counseling. In this case, either a copy of the hall ticket or a letter from the Head of the Institution, where the candidate is currently studying shall be produced by the authorized person, stating that the candidate has to appear for their final semester degree examination on the day of the counseling for MBA admissions at NIT Calicut.
3. If the candidate is medically unfit to attend the counseling-cum-admission process on 27th May 2022 at NIT Calicut, the authorized person shall produce a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that the candidate is medically unfit to travel to NIT Calicut to attend the counseling process.

However, please note that the authorized person shall produce all the original certificates/documents for the completion of admissions process on the day of the counseling (as announced in our earlier communication) and they shall remit the required fee on the same day, if the admission is confirmed.
