

About Centre for Indian Knowledge Systems, NIT Calicut

In line with the National Education Policy 2020, NITC has established the Centre for Indian Knowledge Systems (CIKS, Bharatheeya Gyana Parampara Kendram) to promote education, training, and research in the traditional Indian Knowledge Systems (Science, Mathematics, Economics, Astronomy, and Astrology).

About Centre for Sanskrit Learning at CSU New Delhi

The Centre for Sanskrit Learning at the Central Sanskrit University aims to promote and preserve the ancient language of Sanskrit through dedicated study and research. It offers various courses and programs that encourage students to explore Sanskrit literature, philosophy, and culture in-depth. The Centre focuses on developing comprehensive teaching methods to make Sanskrit more accessible to modern learners, ensuring its continued relevance in academic and cultural spheres.
